

Naas Library at 7 pm
Thursday 12th October talk on Swifts
by Noel Linehan

Noel Linehan has been collaborating with Swift Conservation Ireland for the past couple of years and carried out great conservation work for Swifts in Co. Cork setting up lots of nest box projects - see the list on www.swiftconservation.ie under Co. Cork

The talk is organised by BWI Kildare Branch.

Noel carries out voluntary work for Swifts in collaboration with SCI and BWI Cork.

This talk will be very interesting.
